

KIRAN K. PATEL, MARTIN SCHULZE WESSEL &amp; ANDREAS WIRSCHING

Europe's History of the Present: Universalism and Particularism

THURSDAY
16
OCTWorkshop

1989 and the Visual Arts

LMU, Richard-Wagner-Straße 10, Room 114, and IBZ, Amalienstraße 3810
DECLecture series/book presentation*Hans Joas (Berlin)Universalismus. Weltherrschaft und Menschheitsethos — Hans Joas (Berlin) in conversation with Friedrich Wilhelm Graf (Munich)*In cooperation with the colloquia of the Chair of Modern History and the Chair of East and Southeast
European History*05
NOVPhilipp Ther (Vienna)The Organized Chinese Capitalism: Insights After Field Work in the Shipbuilding Town Jiang Yin*In cooperation with the colloquia of the Chair of Modern History and
the Chair of East and Southeast
European History*26
NOVMarta Bucholc (Warsaw)European Parliament Resolutions on Reproductive Rights: An EU Response to Conservative Universalism21
JANGuzel Yusupova (Berlin)How Ethnic Politics Has Shaped Authoritarianism in Russia28
JANUna Blagojevic (Berlin)Socialist Yugoslavia and the Question of Human Rights:
Universalism, Particularism, and Conceptions of the HumanFRIDAY 28
NOVJunior Fellow WorkshopSocial Classes in Central-Eastern Europe: Between Universalism and Particularism*In cooperation with Collegium Carolinum*

Hochstraße 8

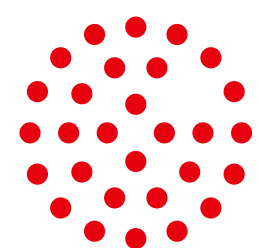

MON/TUE
01
02
DECConferenceIndustrial Policies Since the 1970s in European and Global Comparison

Seidlvilla, Nikolaiplatz 1b

WINTER TERM 2025/26

WEEKLY ON WEDNESDAYS, 5.15–6.45 PM

ROOM K 201, SCHELLINGSTRASSE 12

Kolleg-Forschungsgruppe
Universalism and Particularism in European Contemporary History

If you would like to receive information on the colloquium and other KFG events regularly, please register for the newsletter: kfg20@lrz.uni-muenchen.de